CHAPTER II
REGISTRATION

3. Registrar and other officers — (1) The State Government shall appoint a person to be the Registrar of Co-operative Societies for the State and may appoint one or more officers of the following categories to assist him, namely:

(a) Additional Registrar of Co-operative Societies;
(b) Joint Registrar of Co-operative Societies;
(c) Deputy Registrar of Co-operative Societies;
(d) Assistant Registrar of Co-operative Societies;
(e) such other categories of officers as may be prescribed.

(2) The officers appointed to assist the Registrar shall, within such areas as the State Government may specify, exercise such powers and perform such duties conferred and imposed on the Registrar by or under this Act as the State Government may, by special or general order, direct:

[Provided that no officer other than the Additional Registrar or the Joint Registrar shall be directed to exercise the powers to hear appeals under Section 78.]

(3) The Officers appointed to assist the Registrar shall be subordinate to him and shall work under his general guidance, supervision and control.

4. Societies which may be registered — Subject to the provisions of this Act, a society which has as its objects the promotion of the economic interest of its members or their general welfare in accordance with co-operative principles or a society established with the object of facilitating the operations of such a society, may be registered under this Act.

5. Registration of societies with limited or unlimited liability — A society may be registered with limited or unlimited liability:

Provided that unless the State Government by a general or special order otherwise directs, the liability of a society of which another society is a member shall be limited.

6. Conditions of registration — (1) No society, other than a society of which another society is a member, shall be registered under this Act unless it consists of at least twenty persons competent to contract under Section 11 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872 (IX of 1872) and belonging to different families, not being near relations and, where the objects of the society include the creation of funds to be lent to its members, unless such persons, save where the Registrar by general or special order otherwise directs, reside in the same town or village or in a compact group of villages:

Provided that a society formed exclusively for the benefit of students may be registered, notwithstanding that the members of such society may not have attained the age of majority according to the law to which they are subject:]

[Provided further that the Registrar may relax the condition of minimum membership to that society which is organized for the welfare of the employees of any organization/establishment:]

[Provided also that in case of a primary society, there shall be at least 33 per cent women members at the time of registration:

Provided also that the Registrar may, for sufficient reasons, relax the conditions of the prescribed percentage of women members.]

(2) The word “limited” or its equivalent in any Indian language shall be the last word in the name of every society registered with limited liability under this Act.

7. Application for registration — (1) For purposes of registration, an application to register a society shall be made to the Registrar in the prescribed form and shall be accompanied by four copies of the proposed bye-laws of the society. The person by whom or on whose behalf such application is made, shall furnish such information in regard to the society, as the Registrar may require.

(2) The application shall be signed—

(a) in the case of a society of which no other society is a member, by at least ten persons qualified in accordance with the requirements of Section 6; and

\(8\). Power of Registrar to decide certain questions — Where in connection with the formation, registration or continuance of a society or the admission of a person as a member of a society any question arises whether a person is an agriculturist or not or whether any person resides in a particular area or not or whether any person belongs to any particular class or occupation or not or such other question pertaining to the eligibility of any person to become a member of a society, such question shall be decided by the Registrar and his decision shall be final.

9. Registration — (1) If the Registrar is satisfied that a society has complied with the provisions of this Act and the rules and that its proposed bye-laws are not contrary to this Act or the rules, he may register the society and its bye-laws with such modifications as he may consider necessary:

Provided that no society shall be registered, if in the opinion of the Registrar, it is likely to be economically unsound or is likely to have an adverse effect upon any other society.

(2) Where the Registrar refuses to register a society or its bye-laws he shall communicate the order of refusal together with reasons therefor to the first signatory to the application.

(3) The Registrar shall take a decision within ninety days from the date of receipt of an application for registration of a society:

Provided that where there is a failure on the part of the Registrar to dispose of such application within the period aforesaid the Registrar shall within the period of fifteen days from the date of expiration of that period, refer the application to the next higher officer and where the Registrar himself is the registering officer to the State Government, who or which, as the case may be, shall dispose of the application within two months from the date of its receipt and on the failure of such higher officer or State Government, as the case may be, to dispose of the application within that period, the society and its bye-laws shall be deemed to have been registered.]

1[(4) The Registrar shall maintain register of societies registered or deemed to be registered under this Act.]

10. Classification of Societies — 2[(1) The Registrar shall classify all societies under one or more of the following heads, namely:—

(a) Apex Society;
(b) Central Society;
(c) Primary Society.]
(2) The Registrar for reasons to be recorded in writing may alter the classification of any society from one head to another.

(3) The decision of the Registrar in respect of classification of societies shall be final.

11. Amendment of bye-laws of society — 1[(1) No amendment of the bye-laws of a society shall be valid until the same has been registered under this Act, for which purpose four copies of the proposed amendment shall be forwarded in the prescribed manner to the Registrar.

(2) If the Registrar is satisfied that the proposed amendment is not contrary to this Act or the rules and is not against the aims and objects of the Society or any of its existing bye-laws, he may register the amendment.] 2[(3) The Registrar shall not refuse to register an amendment of the byelaws without giving an opportunity to the applicant society, for being heard. If he decides to refuse to register an amendment, he shall communicate the order of refusal together with reasons therefor to the society within forty-five days from the date of receipt of the proposal:

Provided that, where there is a failure on the part of the Registrar to dispose of any such application within the period aforesaid, the Registrar shall within a period of fifteen days from the date of expiration of that period, refer the application to the next higher officer and where the Registrar himself is the registering officer, to the State Government, who or which, as the case may be, shall dispose of the application within two months from the date of its receipt and on the failure of such higher officer or the State Government, as the case may be, to dispose of the application within that period, the amendment of the byelaws shall be deemed to have been registered.] 3

12. Power to direct amendment of bye-laws — 2[(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, or the rules or byelaws, on the request of more than fifty per cent. of the members of the society or if the Registrar considers that an amendment of the byelaws of society is necessary or desirable in the interest of such society, he may, by an order in writing to be served on the society in the prescribed manner, require the society to make the amendment within sixty days.]
opportunity of being heard and after soliciting the opinion of such Apex Federal Society, as may be notified by the State Government, register such amendment and issue a certified copy thereof to such society:]

[Provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply in the case of Urban Co-operative Banks.]

13. Change of name — A society may, by an amendment of its bye-laws, change its name, but such change shall not affect any right or obligation of the society, or of any of its members, or past members, or deceased members, or render defective any legal proceedings by or against the society, and any legal proceedings which might have been continued or commenced by or against the society by its new name.

14. Certain certificates to be conclusive evidence — ![1](Where a society is registered or deemed to be registered under this Act, the Registrar shall issue a certificate of registration signed by him and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the society therein mentioned has been duly registered unless it is proved that the registration of the society has been subsequently cancelled:

Provided that where a society is deemed to be registered under this Act, the Registrar shall issue a certificate of registration within sixty days from the date on which it was deemed to be registered.]

(2) No society shall commence business unless it has obtained a certificate of registration under sub-section (1) and every member of such society carrying on business in contravention of this subsection shall be severally liable for all liabilities incurred in such business.

(3) When the Registrar registers an amendment of the bye-laws of a society under Section 11 or Section 12, he shall issue to the society a copy of the amendment registered by him, which shall be conclusive evidence that the same is duly registered.

(4) Where a society changes its name under Section 13, the Registrar shall amend the certificate of registration accordingly which shall be conclusive evidence that the change of name is duly registered.

1. Added by M.P. Amendment Act No. 7 of 1997, w.e.f. 6-2-1997.
15. Change of liability of society from limited to unlimited or vice-versa — (1) Subject to the provisions of Section 11, a society may by an amendment of its bye-laws change its liability from limited to unlimited or from unlimited to limited.

(2) No such amendment shall be registered by the Registrar unless he is satisfied that—

(i) twenty-one days' notice has been given to every member of the society and to any person or class of persons whose interest may, in the opinion of the Registrar, be affected by the change; and

(ii) with respect to every such member or person who, in the opinion of the Registrar, is entitled to notice—

(a) either his assent has been obtained to the change or is deemed to have been obtained by virtue of his failure to object within twenty one days from the date of the notice,

(b) if he objects—

(i) he is allowed to withdraw his share, if he is a member, or

(ii) that his debt or claim has been discharged or has been determined or has been secured to the satisfaction of the Registrar within three months from the date of receipt of objection if he is a creditor:

Provided that the Registrar may in the case of any person or class of persons, for special reasons, to be recorded, dispense with the notice required by this sub-section.

16. Reorganisation of Societies — (1) In this section—

(a) “affected society” means a society which decides to reorganise itself in any of the manners specified in sub-section (2); and

(b) “resulting society” means a society—

(i) which is formed as a result of amalgamation under clause (a) of sub-section (2); or
(2) A society may, by resolution passed by two-thirds majority of the members present and voting at a special general meeting held for the purpose decide to reorganise itself by—

(a) amalgamating itself with another society; or

(b) transferring its assets and liabilities in whole or in part to any other society; or

(c) dividing itself into two or more societies; or

(d) converting itself into a class of society, the object of which is materially different from that under which it has been classified under this Act.

Provided that no such decisions shall take effect unless it is approved by the Registrar:

1. [Provided further that in case of a Co-operative Bank, the Registrar shall not give his approval save with the previous sanction in writing of the Reserve Bank.]

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) where the Registrar is satisfied that it is essential in the public interest or in the interest of the members of the affected societies or necessary to secure the proper management of any society, he may direct that any society or societies shall reorganise itself or themselves in any one or more of the modes indicated in sub-section (2):

1. [Provided that, in the case of a Cooperative Bank, the Registrar shall not issue any direction save with the previous sanction in writing of the Reserve Bank:

Provided further that before a final order under this sub-section is passed by the Registrar every society concerned shall be given an opportunity of expressing its opinion on the reorganisation proposals.]
(4) The procedure for reorganisation of a society in accordance with the decision under sub-section (2) or the direction of the Registrar under sub-section (3), as the case may be, shall be such as may be prescribed.

(5) If any such reorganisation under sub-section (2) or (3) is likely to affect in any manner the interest of any person, notice thereof shall be given to all such persons and every such person shall be given an option, to be exercised within a month from the date of the issue of such notice, of either becoming a member of the resulting society or societies or of demanding the payment of the share or interest or dues in respect of the affected society, as the case may be.

(6) No reorganisation shall be final until the assent of every such person whose interest is likely to be affected, has been obtained or deemed to have been obtained by virtue of his failure to exercise the option given to him, and further, unless all the claims of persons who have exercised the option of demanding the payment of their shares or interests or dues under sub-section (5) have been met in full.

(7) Every resulting society under this section shall have such constitution, property, powers, rights, interests, authorities, duties and obligations as may be specified in the scheme of reorganisation and every such scheme of reorganisation may contain such consequential, incidental and supplemental provisions as may, in the opinion of the Registrar, be necessary to give effect to such scheme.

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (IV of 1882) or the Indian Registration Act, 1908 (XVI of 1908), a resolution of a society approved by the Registrar under sub-section (2) shall be sufficient conveyance to vest the assets and liabilities of each affected society in the resulting society or societies concerned, such vesting being subject only to the provisions of the scheme of reorganisation.

(9) The reorganisation of societies shall not in any manner, whatsoever affect any right or obligation of the resulting society or societies or render defective any legal proceedings by or against the society or societies and any legal proceedings that might have been continued or commenced by or against the society or the societies, as the case may be, before the reorganisation may be continued or commenced by or against the resulting society or societies.

(10) Where any two or more societies have been amalgamated or a society has been divided or converted, the registration of such society or societies shall be deemed to have been cancelled on the date of registration of the amalgamated society or of the converted society or of the new societies into which the society may have been divided.

(11) Where a land mortgage bank has been reorganised by amalgamation with a central bank, the amalgamated bank shall in respect of all transactions relating to the land mortgage bank business made on and after such amalgamation be deemed to be a land mortgage bank within the meaning of the law relating to Land Mortgage Banks for the time being in force.

Explanation — For the purposes of this section “Central Bank” means a society with the words “Central Bank” or “District Bank” as part of its name and whose main object is to finance societies which are members of it and lie within a specified area.

(12) Every scheme of such reorganisation shall be published in the official Gazette for general information.

[16-A. Collaboration by Societies — Any society may, enter into the collaboration with any Government Undertaking or any undertaking approved by the State Government for carrying on any specific business including industrial investment, financial aid or marketing and management.

[16-B. Partnership of societies — Any two or more societies may by resolution passed at general meeting by a majority of members present and voting in each such society enter into a contract of a partnership for carrying out any specific business permissible under the bye-laws on such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon. Where such partnership requires creation of a new organisation, the participating society shall be its members.]

[16-C. Government’s power to make scheme of reorganisation in the public interest — (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the Rules made thereunder, if the State Government, on receipt of

1. Added by M.P. Amendment Act No. 12 of 1994, w.e.f. 8-5-1994.
2. New Sec. 16-C added by Chhattisgarh Act No. 11 of 2001, w.e.f. 14-9-2001;
a report from the Registrar or otherwise, is satisfied that in the public interest it is necessary to reorganise any society or societies for the purpose of securing proper implementation of development programmes the State Government, as it may deem necessary, may make such scheme of reorganisation and issue orders to implement above scheme:

[Provided that in case of a Cooperative Bank, prior sanction in writing of the Reserve Bank shall be necessary.]

(2) There shall be the provisions in scheme of reorganisation regarding—

(a) Method of reorganisation;
(b) Procedure for reorganisation;
(c) To the membership, registration, management, assets and liabilities, powers, rights, interests, duties, staff and conditions of employment of such society or societies which are made after reorganisation;
(d) Such other consequential, incidental and supplementary provisions as may be necessary;
(e) Any other subject as may be deemed necessary by the State Government.

(3) The State Government may modify or cancel any reorganisation scheme made or issued any orders under sub-section (1).

(4) The provisions regarding every reorganisation scheme and the orders issued by the State Government shall be binding upon the interested parties.

(5) Every scheme of such reorganisation shall be published in the official Gazette for general information.]

17. Compromise or arrangement for repayment of liabilities and reconstruction of societies — (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, or the rules made thereunder where a compromise or arrangement is proposed between—

(a) a society and its creditors or any class of them, and
(b) a society and its members, the Registrar may on the application of the society or of any member or of any creditor of the society or, in the case of a society which is being wound up of the liquidator, order a meeting of the

1. Added by Chhattisgarh Amendment Act No. 20 of 2003, w.e.f. 9-9-2003.
members, or creditors or both, as the case may be, to be called, held and conducted in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that the Registrar may, on his own motion, order such a meeting to be called for the purpose of affecting a compromise or arrangement.

(2) If a majority in number representing three-fourths of the members or three-fourths of the total amount of valuation due to the creditors, as the case may be, present and voting in person at the meeting agree to any compromise or arrangement the compromise or arrangement shall, if confirmed by the Registrar, be binding on all members or all the creditors as the case may be, and also on the society, or in the case of a society which is being wound up, on the liquidator:

Provided that the Registrar shall not confirm a compromise or arrangement unless he is satisfied that all the members or creditors, as the case may be, whose interests are affected by such compromise or arrangement, had notice of such meeting:

[Provided further that in the case of a Cooperative Bank the Registrar shall not confirm the compromise or arrangement, save with the previous sanction in writing of the Reserve Bank.]

(3) When an order cancelling a meeting is passed under sub-section (1) or the proviso thereof for considering any compromise or arrangement between a society and its creditors or any class of them, the Registrar may give notice of such order to a Civil Court in which proceedings, whether instituted before or after the order, in respect of any liability of the society due to a creditor to whom a copy of the order is posted, are pending and on receipt of such notice the Civil Court shall stay the proceedings. If no such compromise or arrangement is confirmed under sub-section (2), the Registrar shall inform the Civil Court accordingly and the proceedings which may have been stayed, shall be resumed.

(4) If a compromise or arrangement between a society and its creditors or any class of them is confirmed under sub-section (2) the proceedings, if any, stayed under sub-section (3) shall abate and no proceedings shall lie in a Civil Court in respect of any liability of the society to which the compromise or arrangement relates.

1. Ins. by M.P. Amendment Act No. 8 of 1970.
(5) The Registrar may, with the previous approval of the State Government, exempt any class of creditors from the operation of this section or any provisions thereof.

(6) A compromise or arrangement confirmed by the Registrar shall not be called in question in any Civil Court.

(7) If a creditor in respect of whom a compromise or arrangement has been confirmed by the Registrar under sub-section (2), fails to receive the amount payable to him under such compromise or arrangement after due notice to do so within the period specified in such notice, the society or the liquidator, as the case may be, shall deposit the amount in such manner as may be directed by the Registrar. On the making of such deposit the amount payable to the creditor under the compromise or arrangement shall be deemed to have been paid to the extent of the deposit.

(8) A compromise or an arrangement between a society and its creditors or any class of them confirmed by the Registrar under sub-section (2) shall cease to be in force as soon as the whole amount of the liability determined therein has been or is deemed to have been paid whether under the provisions of this section or otherwise notwithstanding that the period originally stipulated for the discharge of such liability has not expired.

(9) After such compromise or arrangement has ceased to be in force no further claim shall remain against the society, or against any property, movable or immovable which it may acquire thereafter, in respect of the liability which had been the subject of the compromise or arrangement, and the society shall be free to conduct its normal business.

17-A. Action and liability of Banks under moratorium — Where an order of moratorium has been made by the Central Government under sub-section (2) of Section 45 of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 (No. 10 of 1949) in respect of Co-operative Bank, the Registrar with the previous approval of the Reserve Bank in writing, may, during the period of moratorium, prepare a scheme—

(i) for the reconstruction or reorganisation of the Co-operative Bank; or

(ii) for the amalgamation of the Co-operative Bank with any other Bank.

17-B. Liability of new Bank to repay to the Deposit Insurance Corporation — Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, where a Co-operative Bank being an insured bank within the meaning of the Deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961 (No. 47 of 1961) is amalgamated or in respect of which a scheme of compromise or arrangement or of reconstruction or reorganisation has been sanctioned and the Deposit Insurance Corporation has become liable to pay to the depositors of the insured bank under subsection (2) of Section 16 of that Act, the bank with which such insured bank is amalgamated or the new co-operative bank formed after such amalgamation or as the case may be, the insured bank or transferee bank shall be under an obligation to repay to the Deposit Insurance Corporation in the circumstances, to the extent and in the manner referred to in Section 21 of the Deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961 (No. 47 of 1961).]

18. Cancellation of registration — [1] (1) The Registrar shall make an order cancelling the registration of a society, if it transfers the whole of its assets and liabilities to another society, or amalgamates with another society, or divides itself into two or more societies or it is de-registered under the provisions of sub-section (1) of Section 18-A or it is wound up under Section 69. The society shall, from the date of such order of cancellation, be deemed to be dissolved and shall cease to exist as a corporate body.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act if any proceedings relating to the winding up or dissolution of a society are pending immediately before the commencement of this Act, such proceedings shall be continued and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the law under which such society was registered or deemed to be registered.

[18-A. De-registration of Societies — (1) If the Registrar is satisfied that any society is registered on misrepresentation made by applicants, or where the work of the society is completed or the purposes for which the society has been registered are not served, he may, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the chief promoter, the Board and the members of the society, de-register the society:

Provided that, where the number of members of the society is so large and it is not possible to ascertain the correct addresses of all such members from the records in the office of the Registrar and, in the opinion of the Registrar it is not practicable to serve a notice of hearing on all such individual members, a public notice of the proceedings of the de-registration shall be given in the prescribed manner and such notice shall be deemed to be notice to all the members of the society, including the chief promoter and the members of the Board of the society, and no proceeding in respect of the de-registration of the society shall be called in question, merely on the ground that individual notice is not served on any member.

(2) When a society is de-registered under the provisions of sub-section (1), the Registrar may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, make such incidental and consequential order including appointment of an official assignee as the circumstances may require.

(3) Subject to the rules made under this Act, the official assignee shall realise the assets and liquidate the liabilities within a period of one year from the date he takes over the charge of property, assets, books, records and other documents. The period aforesaid may, at the discretion of the Registrar, be extended from time to time, so however, that the total period does not exceed three years in the aggregate.

(4) The official assignee shall be paid such remuneration and allowances as may be prescribed.

(5) The powers of the Registrar under sub-sections (1) and (2) shall not be exercised by any officer below the rank of a Joint Registrar of Co-operative Societies.

CHAPTER III

(2) No member shall alienate the whole or any part of the land or interest therein which is subject to charge under sub-section (1) until the whole amount borrowed by the member together with interest is paid in full:

Provided that it shall be lawful for a member or a past member to mortgage in favour of—

(i) a Co-operative Land Development Bank; or

(ii) a bank under the Chhattisgarh Krishi Udhav Pravartan Tatha Prakrir Upbandh (Bank) Adhiniyam, 1972 (No. 32 of 1973); or

(iii) the State Government; such land or any part thereof under the rules made under the Chhattisgarh Irrigation Act, 1931 (No. 3 of 1931), for supply of water from a canal to such land or any part thereof.

(3) Any alienation made in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (2) shall be void as against any claim of the society in respect of the loan taken from it under this section.

(4) Intimation in writing shall be given to the Tahsildar about the details of the debt or outstanding demand owing to the society from a member, past member or deceased member in the prescribed manner and the Tahsildar shall on receipt of such information, have it entered in the Record of Rights.

\[41-A. Right of society to acquire and dispose of immovable property — (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, a society shall have power to itself to acquire agricultural land or interest therein, or any immovable property which has been charged or mortgaged to it by a member in respect of any financial assistance availed of by him, provided the said land or interest therein or any other immovable property has been sought to be sold by public auction and no person has offered to purchase it for a price which is sufficient to pay to the society the money due to it:

Provided that only such portion of the property shall be sold as may be reasonably sufficient to satisfy the [1][debt and interest thereon].

(2) A society which acquires land or interest therein or any other immovable property in exercise of the power vested in it under sub-section (1) may dispose of by sale within a period to be specified by the Registrar in this behalf.

(3) If the society has to lease out any land acquired by it under sub-section (1) pending sale thereof as indicated in sub-section (2), the period of lease shall not exceed one year at a time and the lessee shall not acquire any interest in that property, notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any other law for the time being in force.

(4) A sale by a society of land or interest therein in terms of this section shall be subject to the provisions of any other law for the time being in force providing for restrictions on purchase of land by non-agriculturists or in excess of ceiling limits or involving fragmentation of land below a specified limit.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed to empower the society to sell any land or interest therein of a person belonging to an aboriginal tribe which has been declared to be an aboriginal tribe by the State Government by notification under sub-section (6) of Section 165 of the Chhattisgarh Land Revenue Code, 1959 (No. 20 of 1959) to a person not belonging to such tribe.

(6) Nothing in the Chhattisgarh Ceiling on Agricultural Holdings Act, 1960 (No. 20 of 1960) shall apply to a society acquiring land under sub-section (1) and holding such land till such time as the society is in a position to sell the land in the manner provided in this section or otherwise, at a price which is adequate to cover its dues.

or was entrusted with organisation or management of such society or any deceased, past or present Chairman, Secretary, Member of the [Board], Officer or employee of the society has made any payment contrary to the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder or by-laws of a society or has caused any deficiency or loss by gross negligence or misconduct or has misappropriated or fraudulently retained any money or other property belonging to such society, the Registrar may on his own motion or on the application of the [Board], liquidator or any creditor, enquire himself or direct some person authorised by him, by an order in writing in this behalf, to enquire into the conduct of such person within two years of the date of the report of audit, enquiry or inspection, or winding up, as the case may be:

Provided that no such enquiry shall be instituted against a person unless the person concerned is given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(2) If, on enquiry made under subsection (1), the Registrar is satisfied that there are good grounds for an order under this sub-section, he may make an order requiring such person, or in the case of a deceased person, his legal representative who inherits his estate, to repay or restore the money or property or any part thereof, with interest at such rate, or to pay contribution and costs or compensation to such extent as the Registrar may consider just and equitable:

Provided that no order under this sub-section shall be made unless the person concerned is given a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter:

Provided further that the liability of a legal representative of the deceased shall be to the extent of the property of the deceased which has come to the hands of such legal representative.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the order made under sub-section (2) may within thirty days from the date of communication of the order to him, appeal to the [State Government]:

1. Subs. by Chhattisgarh Amendment Act No. 6 of 2013 for the word “Committee”, w.e.f. 13-2-2013.
2. Subs. by Chhattisgarh Amendment Act No. 20 of 2003 for the word “Tribunal”, w.e.f. 9-9-2003.
(ii) to the applicants or the person designated by the applicants to receive such a report;

(iii) any member of a society;

(iv) federation of which the society is a member;

(v) creditor; on payment of the prescribed fee.]

1[59-A. Duty of certain persons to assist enquiry — (1) All officers, members and past members of the society in respect of whom an inquiry is held, and any other person who, in the opinion of the officer holding the inquiry is in possession of the information, books and papers relating to the society, shall furnish such information as is in their possession and produce all books and papers relating to the society which are in their custody or power, and otherwise give to the officer holding an inquiry all assistance in connection with the enquiry which they can reasonably give.

(2) If any such person refuses to produce before the Registrar or any person authorised by him under sub-section (1) of Section 59 any book or papers which it is his duty under sub-section (1) to produce or to answer any question which is put to him by the Registrar or the person authorised by the Registrar in pursuance of sub-section (1), the Registrar or the person authorised by the Registrar may certify the refusal and the Registrar may, after hearing, any statement which may be offered in defence punish the defaulter with a penalty not exceeding 2[one thousand] rupees. Any sum imposed as penalty under this section shall, on the application by the Registrar or the person authorised by him, to a Magistrate, having jurisdiction, be recoverable by the Magistrate as if it were a fine imposed by himself.]

60. Inspection of books of society — 3[(1) The Registrar may on his own motion, or on the application of creditor of a society inspect or direct any person authorised by him by general or special order in writing in this behalf, to inspect the books of the society:

1 Ins. by M.P. Amendment Act No. 14 of 1976.
2 Subs. by M.P. Amendment Act No. 25 of 1988, for the word “five hundred”.
Provided that no such inspection shall be made on the application of a creditor unless the applicant—

(a) satisfies the Registrar that the debt is a sum then due and that he has demanded payment thereof and has not received satisfaction within a reasonable time; and

(b) deposits with the Registrar such sum as security for the costs of the proposed inspection as the Registrar may require.

(2) The Registrar shall communicate the results of any such inspection—

(a) where the inspection is made of his own motion, to the society; and

(b) where the inspection is made on the application of a creditor, to the creditor and the society.

61. Rectification of defects — (1) If the result of the audit held under Section 58 or an inquiry held under Section 59 or an inspection held under Section 60 discloses any defects in the constitution, working or financial condition or the books of a society, the Registrar may bring such defects to the notice of the society and if the society is affiliated to another society also to the notice of that other society.

(2) The Registrar may make an order directing the society or its officers or the society to which it is affiliated to take such action as may be specified in the order within the time mentioned therein to remedy the defects disclosed in the audit, inquiry or inspection.

62. Costs of inquiry — Where an inquiry is held under Section 59 or an inspection is made under Section 60 on the application of a creditor, the Registrar may apportion the costs, or such part of the costs as he may deem fit, between the society to which the society concerned is affiliated, the society concerned, the members or creditors demanding an inquiry or inspection, and the officers or former officers of the society:

Provided that—
(a) no order of apportionment of the costs shall be made under this section unless the society or the person sought to be made liable to pay the costs therein has had a reasonable opportunity of being heard;

(b) the Registrar shall state in writing the grounds on which the costs are apportioned.

63. [-][]

2.63-A. Expenditure on proceedings, etc. — No expenditure from the funds of a society shall be incurred for the purpose of defraying the costs of any proceedings filed or instituted in any Court by any officer or [Board] of a society against any order made or purporting to have been made by the Registrar under Section 19-AA, Chapter V or Chapter VI:

Provided that where the case is finally decided in favour of the officer or the [Board], as the case may be, such cost as may be approved by the Registrar shall be reimbursed by the society.

CHAPTER VII
DISPUTES AND ARBITRATION

64. Disputes — (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, any dispute touching the constitution, management or business, terms and conditions of employment of a society or the liquidation of a society shall be referred to the Registrar by any of the parties to the dispute if the parties thereto are among the following:

(a) a society, its [Board], any past [Board], any past or present officer, any past or present agent, any past or present servant or a nominee, heirs or legal representatives of any deceased agent or deceased servant of the society, or the liquidator of the society;

2. Ins. by M.P. Amendment Act No. 14 of 1990, w.e.f. 31-7-1990.
3. Subs. by Chhattisgarh Amendment Act No. 6 of 2013 for the word "Committee", w.e.f. 13-2-2013.
Section 64

(b) a member, past member or a person claiming through a member, past member or deceased member of a society or of a society which is a member of the society;

c) a person other than a member of the society who has been granted a loan by the society or with whom the society has or had business transactions and any person claiming through such a person;

d) a surety of a member, past member or deceased member or a person other than a member who has been granted a loan by the society, whether such a surety is or is not a member of the society;

e) any other society or the liquidator of such a society; and

(f) a creditor of a society.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), a dispute shall include—

(i) a claim by a society for any debt or demand due to it from a member, past member or the nominee, heir or legal representative of a deceased member, whether such debt or demand be admitted or not;

(ii) a claim by a surety against the principal debtor where the society has recovered from the surety any amount in respect of any debt or demand due to it from the principal debtor as a result of the default of the principal debitor, whether such debt or demand be admitted or not;

(iii) a claim by a society for any loss caused to it by a member, past member or deceased member, any officer, past officer or deceased officer, any agent, past agent or deceased agent, or any servant, past servant or deceased servant, or its [Board], past or present, whether such loss be admitted or not;

1. Subs. by Chhattisgarh Amendment Act No. 6 of 2013 for the word "Committee", w.e.f. 13-2-2013.
(iv) a question regarding rights, etc., including tenancy rights between a housing society and its tenants or members; and

Provided that the Registrar shall not entertain any dispute under this clause during the period commencing from the announcement of the election programme till the declaration of the results.

(3) If any question arising whether a dispute referred to the Registrar is a dispute, the decision thereon of the Registrar shall be final and shall not be called in question in any Court.

65. Limitation — (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Limitation Act, 1908 (IX of 1908), and subject to the specific provisions made in this Act, the period of limitation for referring the disputes mentioned below to the Registrar under Section 64 shall be

(a) when the dispute relates to the recovery of any sum including interest thereon due to a society by a member thereof, be six years from the date on which such member dies or ceases to be a member of the society;

(b) when the dispute is between a society or its 2[Board] and any past 2[Board], any past or present officer, or past or present agent, or past or present servant or the nominee, heir or the legal representative of a deceased officer, deceased agent or deceased servant of the society, or a member or past member or the nominee, heir or the legal representative of a deceased member and when the dispute relates to any act, or omission on the part of either party to the dispute, be six years from the date on which the act or omission with reference to which the dispute arose, took place;

2. Subs. by Chhattisgarh Amendment Act No. 6 of 2013 for the word “Committee”, w.e.f. 13-2-2013.
(c) when the dispute is in respect of any matter touching the constitution, management or business of a society which has been ordered to be wound up under Section 69 or in respect of which a nominated [Board] or a person or persons has or have been appointed under Section 53, be six years from the date of the order issued under Section 69 and Section 53, as the case may be;

[(d) when the dispute is in connection with the election of any officer of a society, be forty-five days from the date of declaration of the election.] (2) The period of limitation in the case of any other dispute except those mentioned in sub-section (1) which are required to be referred to the Registrar under Section 64 shall be regulated by the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908 (IX of 1908), as if the dispute were a suit and the Registrar a Civil Court.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2) the Registrar may admit a dispute after the expiry of the limitation period if the applicant satisfies the Registrar that he had sufficient cause for not referring the dispute within such period.

66. Settlement of dispute — (1) The Registrar may, on receipt of the reference of dispute under Section 64 decide the dispute himself or transfer it for disposal to a nominee or board of nominees to be appointed by the Registrar.

(2) When a dispute is transferred under sub-section (1) for disposal by a nominee or a board of nominees, the Registrar may at any time, for reasons to be recorded in writing, withdraw such dispute from such nominee or board of nominees and may decide the dispute himself or transfer it again to any other nominee or board of nominees appointed by him for decision.

(3) The decision of a nominee or a board of nominees to whom any dispute is transferred for decision under this section shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the decision of the Registrar.

1. Subs. by Chhattisgarh Amendment Act No. 6 of 2013 for the word "Committee", w.e.f. 13-2-2013.
2. Ins. by M.P. Amendment Act No. 8 of 1970.
67. Procedure for settlement of disputes and power of Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees — (1) The Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees shall have the power of making interlocutory orders including grant of a temporary injunction. In exercising this power, the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees, as the case may be, shall follow the procedure laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), for the purpose of making such orders and granting an injunction.

(2) No party shall be represented at the hearing of the dispute by any legal practitioner, except with the permission of the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees, as the case may be:

Provided that where the permission is so granted, the other party to the dispute shall be entitled to be represented by a legal practitioner.

(3) The Registrar or his nominee, as the case may be, shall record a note in Hindi of the evidence of the parties and witnesses who attend and upon the evidence so recorded and after consideration of any documentary evidence produced by either side, shall give a decision or award, as the case may be, which shall be reduced in writing. If the applicant duly summoned is absent, the case may be dismissed in default. If the non-applicant is absent, the case can be decided ex-parte. In cases, where three nominees are appointed, the majority shall prevail:

Provided that where a dispute has been decided against any party in default and if such party satisfies the Registrar within thirty days from the date of such default, that there was sufficient cause for its non-appearance, the Registrar shall make an order settling aside the decision and shall appoint a date for proceeding with case.

68. Attachment before award — Where the Registrar or a nominee or, board of nominees, as the case may be acting under Section 66 is satisfied on affidavit, enquiry or otherwise that a party to any reference with intent to delay or obstruct the execution of any award that may be made—

(a) is about to dispose of the whole or any part of his property;

(b) is about to remove the whole or any part of his property from the jurisdiction of the Registrar; the Registrar, a nominee or board of nominees may Unless adequate security is furnished, direct the conditional attachment of the said property or such part thereof as he thinks necessary through such agency authorised by him as he may deem fit and such attachment shall have the same effect as if it had been made by a competent Civil Court.

CHAPTER VIII
LIQUIDATION

69. Winding up of Societies — (1) If the Registrar, after an inquiry has been held under Section 59, or an inspection has been made under Section 60 or on receipt of an application made by not less than three-fourths of the members of a society, is of opinion that the society ought to be wound up, he may issue an order directing it to be wound up.

(2) The Registrar may of his own motion make an order directing the winding up of a society—

(a) where the society has not commenced working within a reasonable time of its registration or has ceased to work; or

(b) where in the opinion of the Registrar the Society has been working mainly for promoting the interest of any individual or group of individuals and not of the members generally; or

(c) where the society has ceased to comply with any conditions as to registration or management under this Act, rules or bye-laws; or

1[d] Where the primary credit society continues to be in default by not recovering its full overdue demand from members for continuous three co-operative years and even after supersession, it fails to recover full overdue demand.

(3) No order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be passed unless the society concerned has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed order and representation, if any made by it is considered.

(4) The Registrar may cancel an order for the winding up of a society, at any time prior to the cancellation of its registration in any case where, in his opinion; the society should continue to exist.

1[(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, no co-operative bank shall be wound up, except with the previous sanction in writing of the Reserve Bank of India.]

169-A. Winding up of Cooperative Bank — Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, the Registrar shall make an order for winding up of a Co-operative Bank, if so required by the Reserve Bank of India in the circumstances mentioned in Section 13-D of the 2[Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee] Corporation Act, 1961 (No. 47 of 1961).]

169-B. Reimbursement of Deposit Insurance Corporation in case of Insured Bank — Where a co-operative Bank, being an insured bank within the meaning of the Deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961 (No. 47 of 1961), is wound up, or taken into liquidation, and the Deposit Insurance Corporation has become liable to the depositors of the insured bank under sub-section (1) of Section 16 of that Act, the Deposit Insurance Corporation shall be reimbursed in the circumstances, to the extent and in the manner provided in Section 21 of the Deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961 (No. 47 of 1961).]

70. Appointment of Liquidator — (1) Where the Registrar has made an order under Section 69 for the winding up of a society, he may appoint a liquidator for the purpose and fix his remuneration and may also remove at any time any person appointed as liquidator and appoint another instead:

1[Provided that in respect of a co-operative bank ordered to be wound up on requisition from the Reserve Bank, the liquidator shall not be appointed or removed without the previous sanction of Reserve Bank.]

(2) A liquidator shall, on appointment, take into his custody or under his control all the property, effects and actionable claims to which the society is or appears to be entitled and shall take such steps as he may deem necessary or expedient, to prevent loss deterioration of, or damage to such property, effects and claims.

1. Ins. by M.P. Amendment Act No. 8 of 1970.
3. Added by M.P. Amendment Act No. 8 of 1970.
Where an appeal is preferred under Section 78 an order of winding up of a society made under Section 69 shall not be operated thereafter until the order is confirmed in appeal:

Provided that the liquidator shall continue to have custody of or control over the property, effects and actionable claims mentioned in sub-section (2) and have authority to take the steps referred to in that sub-section.

Where an order of winding up of a society is set aside in appeal, the property, effects and actionable claims of the society shall revert in the society.

Control of liquidator — After the appointment of the liquidator, all powers of the Board of a Society, whether elected or nominated, shall cease and the employees of the Society shall thereafter work under the control and supervision of the liquidator.

Powers of liquidator — (1) Subject to any rules made in this behalf the whole of the assets of a society in respect of which an order for winding up has been made, shall vest in the liquidator appointed under Section 70 from the date on which the order takes effect and the liquidator shall have power to realise such assets by sale or otherwise.

(2) Such liquidator shall also have power, subject to the control of the Registrar—

(a) to institute and defend suits and other legal proceedings on behalf of the society by the name of his office;

(b) to determine from time to time the contribution (including debts due) to be made or remaining to be made by the members or past members or by the estates or nominees, heirs or legal representatives of deceased members or by any officers or former officers, to the assets of the society;

2. Ins. by M.P. Act No. 20 of 1999, w.e.f. 7-8-1999.
3. Subs. by Chhattisgarh Amendment Act No. 6 of 2013 for the word "Committee", w.e.f. 13-2-2013.
(c) to investigate all claims against the society, and, subject to the provisions of this Act, to decide questions of priority arising between claimants;

(d) to pay claims against the society including interest up to the date of winding up according to their respective priorities, if any, in full or ratably, as the assets of the society permit; the surplus, if any, remaining after payment of the claims being applied in payment of interest from the date of such order of winding up at a rate fixed by him but not exceeding the contract rate in any case;

(e) to determine by what persons and in what proportions the costs of the liquidation are to be borne;

(f) to determine whether any person is a member, past member or nominee of deceased member;

(g) to give such directions in regard to the collection and distribution of the assets of the society as may appear to him to be necessary for winding up the affairs of the society;

(h) to carry on the business of the society so far as may be necessary for the beneficial winding up of the same;

(i) to make any compromise or arrangement with creditors or persons claiming to be creditors or having or alleging to have any claim, present or future, whereby the society may be rendered liable; and

(j) to compromise all calls or liabilities to calls and debts and liabilities capable of resulting in debts, and all claims, present or future, certain or contingent, subsisting or supposed to subsist between the society and a contributory or alleged contributory or other debtor or person apprehending liability to the society and all questions in any way relating to or affecting the assets or the winding up of the society on such terms as may be agreed and take any security for the discharge of any such call, liability, debt or claim and give a complete discharge in respect thereof:
CHAPTER IX
OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

73. Prohibition of use of word “Co-operative” — (1) No person other than a society registered under this Act and a person or his successor in his interests of any name or title under which he traded or carried on
